

- 1 Q. (Reference Application)
2 a) How does NP define a transmission asset? Is NP's definition consistent
3 with the definition typically used in the industry?
4 b) Please identify the cost of transmission assets included in the cost of
5 service study for the 2026 test year and the amount of this cost allocated
6 to each customer class.
7 c) Please identify the cost of distribution assets included in the cost of
8 service study for the 2026 test year and the amount of this cost allocated
9 to each customer class.
10 d) Please identify the costs of connection (e.g., specifically-assigned) assets
11 included in the cost of service study for the 2026 test year and the amount
12 of this cost that is allocated to individual customers, and to each customer
13 class.
14
15 A. a) In Newfoundland Power's Cost of Service Study, the allocation of costs to customer 16 rate classes and forecast 2026 test year costs are considered as part of the 17 Company's 2025/2026 General Rate Application which is currently reserved by the 18 Board for final disposition. Subject to further direction from the Board,
19 Newfoundland Power considers the record of the Company's *2025/2026 General
20 Rate Application* to be closed. As a result, Newfoundland Power considers this
21 Request for Information to be outside of the scope of its *2025 Capital Budget
22 Application*.
23
24 b) See part a).
25
26 c) See part a).
27
28 d) See part a).